“HAWKER SIDDELEY TRIDENT: BLIND FAITH, BLIND LANDING”

Max Kingsley-Jones

The speaker recounts the story of one of the UK's best-loved airliners, the Hawker Siddeley Trident. The Hatfield-built trijet promised to revolutionise the short-haul air transport market with its advanced design, low operating costs and sophisticated auto-flight systems. But despite achieving some world-beating technical firsts, short-sighted strategic thinking and political wrangling prevented the Trident from achieving its true potential.
